A Letter from Fr. Patrick Kizza

October 12, 2025

Gratitude, Faith, and Perseverance in God

The readings for today present a powerful message about healing, gratitude, and faithfulness. From Naaman the Syrian in the First Reading to Paul's endurance in chains, and finally to the grateful Samaritan leper in the Gospel, we see the hand of God at work in transforming lives.

In 2 Kings 5:14-17, Naaman is healed of his leprosy when he humbly obeys the prophet Elisha and bathes in the Jordan. His pride almost prevented him from receiving God's healing, yet once he trusted, his life was changed. Naaman's gratitude is evident—he proclaims there is no God except the God of Israel. This reminds us of that God's grace often requires humility and obedience before miracles unfold.

In 2 Timothy 2:8-13, St. Paul reminds us that even though he is in chains, the Word of God is never chained. His perseverance in suffering mirrors Christ's own journey through death to resurrection. The message is clear: Christian faith is not about convenience, but about fidelity, even in hardship. God's promise is unshakable—if we remain faithful, we shall reign with Him.

The Gospel (Luke 17:11-19) brings these lessons together. Ten lepers cry out for healing, and all are cleansed, but only one—a Samaritan—returns to thank Jesus. Gratitude completes faith. Healing is not only physical but spiritual, and thanksgiving opens the heart to salvation.

In our world today, many people receive blessings but forget the Giver. Like the nine lepers, we can take God's gifts for granted, rushing back to daily life without acknowledging His mercy. Yet the call is clear: faith must lead to gratitude, and gratitude to witnesses.

We see living examples in the saints. St. Francis of Assisi gave thanks in all things, even poverty and suffering, seeing them as a gift that conformed him more closely to Christ. St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa), like Paul, bore with hardships for the sake of others, never losing faith in God's providence. And in everyday life, when someone who survives illness, overcomes hardship, or succeeds in work pauses to thank God and use their blessing for others, they live the spirit of the grateful leper.

Naaman teaches us humility, Paul teaches us perseverance, and the Samaritan leper teaches us gratitude. In our own time, we are invited to do the same: to humbly receive God's gifts, to endure with faith in trials, and to always return to give thanks. Only then will we hear Jesus' words addressed to us: "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

Bereavement Ministry Training 2025

Thursday, October 23, 2025

6:00pm - 8:00pm in the Community Room

Presenters: Father Patrick Kizza, Liz Brandt and Maureen Schmidt

What is a Bereavement Minister?

A Bereavement Minister is a trained layperson/volunteer who provides spiritual and emotional support to families experiencing the loss of a loved one. They help guide the grieving family through the funeral planning process, offering comfort and assistance selecting readings, hymns and other liturgical elements with the Director of Music. Ministers also attend the funeral services to set up the altar, gifts, and programs as well as offer a supportive presence and serve as a compassionate link between the family and parish community.

There are no requirements to become a Bereavement Minister other than attending the training. We welcome all volunteers and encourage each of you to consider joining this vital and important ministry.

Reservations: Please contact Liz Brandt elizbrandt@aol.com and Maureen Schmidt moebeschmidt@gmail.com to register for the training workshop.

Are You Called to the Ministry of Care?

God calls each of us to share His love in different ways. For some, that call is lived out in the Ministry of Care — bringing the Eucharist, prayer, and companionship to those who are homebound, in hospitals, or in senior communities. But how does someone know if they are called to this ministry?

Often, the call begins as a quiet tug at the heart — a desire to serve the sick, the lonely, or the elderly. If you feel compassion for those who cannot be with us at Mass and are drawn to bring them comfort and connection, that may be the Holy Spirit nudging you.

For others, the call is more direct. During COVID, several St. Patrick parishioners felt moved to join after witnessing the challenges of bringing Communion to shut-in senior communities. Some were inspired by being visited themselves while sick or hospitalized. Others, after losing a loved one, wanted to offer the same comfort that a Minister of Care had once brought to their family.

Ministers of Care don't need special skills — only a listening ear, a kind heart, reverence for the Eucharist, and respect for the dignity of every person.

If you find joy in prayer and peace in serving others, please prayerfully consider this beautiful ministry. To learn more — or to request a visit — contact the parish office.
