A Letter from Fr. Patrick Kizza

Flowing Waters and Living Temples: God's Presence in Everyday Life

The readings from Ezekiel, Paul's letter to the Corinthians, and the Gospel of John remind us that God's presence is not confined to a physical structure, it flows into every aspect of our lives like the life-giving water that Ezekiel saw pouring from the temple. That water, bringing freshness and life wherever it flowed, is a powerful image of God's grace constantly renewing and healing us. Just as the water turned the salty sea into something fresh and life-filled, so too can God's Spirit transform even the most desolate parts of our hearts and relationships.

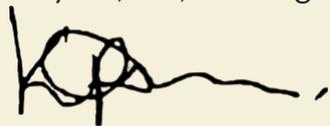

Saint Paul builds on this vision by reminding us that we ourselves are God's temple. God no longer dwells in stone walls, but within each of us. This truth challenges us to treat our bodies, our hearts, and our communities as sacred places. When we choose kindness, forgiveness, and love, we allow God's Spirit to flow freely through us, bringing life to others just as the water from the temple brought life to the desert.

The Gospel brings this message to life in a very human moment: Jesus cleansing the temple. He drives out the merchants and money changers, restoring the temple's true purpose, a place of prayer and communion with God. It's a dramatic reminder that sometimes, our own "inner temples" also need cleansing. In our daily lives, this might mean setting aside distractions, unhealthy habits, or grudges that clutter our hearts. Each time we forgive, pray, or serve someone in need, we make room for Christ to dwell more deeply within us.

A simple, everyday example of this can be seen in moments of quiet care and compassion. Consider a person comforting a grieving friend—not with many words, but with presence, patience, and prayer. In that small act, God's living water flows. It refreshes both the one who grieves and the one who gives comfort. This is how the Spirit builds up the temple of God in our midst, one act of love at a time.

As we remember our deceased loved ones this November, we are reminded that their faith continues to live in us. Their love, prayers, and examples still flow through our lives like Ezekiel's River, quiet, steady, and life-giving. I am grateful to our Ministers of Bereavement: Liz Brandt, Maureen Schmidt. They do an outstanding ministry to our grieving families. I applaud the efforts of Maristella Lee and our music ministry that brings such comfort to families at the time of the funeral. I am grateful to Joanne Manarik and Jennifer Boldry who are often the first contact a grieving family has with the parish. I am grateful to the presiders who make an earnest effort to address the families. We are so blessed by the funeral homes that care for many of the funerals here at Saint Patrick. Their compassion is a living sign of God's Spirit at work—healing hearts, renewing hope, and keeping the waters of God's love flowing in our community.

May we, too, be living temples where God's grace overflows.

Fr. Patrick

Scripture Questions of the Week

First Reading:

The prophet Ezekiel envisions a future of restoration and renewal for the exiled Israelites held captive in Babylon. What future do you hope for with your family?

Second Reading:

Paul tells us that as believers in Christ, the Spirit dwells in us, making us holy, the temple of God. Can you share a time when you felt the Holy Spirit active in your life?

Gospel:

The disciples understood the full meaning of Jesus' cleansing of the temple only after his resurrection from the dead. What has hindsight taught you about your life?

Bereavement Ministry Training 2025

Monday, November 17, 2025

1:00pm - 3:00pm in the Community Room

Presenters: Father Patrick Kizza, Liz Brandt and Maureen Schmidt

What is a Bereavement Minister?

A Bereavement Minister is a trained layperson/volunteer who provides spiritual and emotional support to families experiencing the loss of a loved one. They help guide the grieving family through the funeral planning process, offering comfort and assistance selecting readings, hymns and other liturgical elements with the Director of Music. Ministers also attend the funeral services to set up the altar, gifts, and programs as well as offer a supportive presence and serve as a compassionate link between the family and parish community.

There are no requirements to become a Bereavement Minister other than attending the training. We welcome all volunteers and encourage each of you to consider joining this vital and important ministry.

Reservations: Please contact Liz Brandt elizbrandt@aol.com and Maureen Schmidt moebeschmidt@gmail.com to register for the training workshop.

Sharing Tree

Hello St. Patrick Families!!

Once again, we have two opportunities for families to participate in the Sharing Tree program this year.

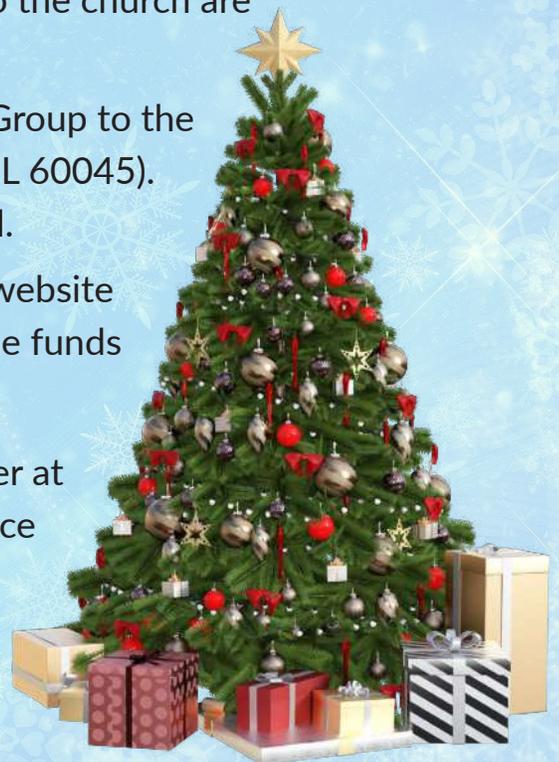

One option is to take an ornament from the trees located in the back of the church the weekends of November 1/2 and November 8/9 and return gifts to the O’Gara Center by Sunday, December 7th. These gifts will be for the children of families we receive from Catholic Charities.

The second option is to donate $50 Walmart or Target gift cards that will be distributed to children and families through Most Blessed Trinity food pantry. There are a couple of options for contributing gift cards (PLEASE NOTE THAT ALL $ OR GIFT CARD COLLECTIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 30th):

1. Drop off Walmart or Target gift cards or checks made out to St. Patrick Women’s Group in the locked offertory boxes identified as “Offertory St. Patrick’s Parish” in the gathering area of the church. The doors to the church are open Monday-Friday from 10am-2pm.
2. Send a check made out to St. Patrick Women’s Group to the parish office (991 S Waukegan Rd, Lake Forest, IL 60045). We will purchase gift cards with money received.
3. Make an online donation via credit card on our website at: www.stpatrick-lakeforest.org/sharingtree. The funds collected will be used to purchase gift cards.

If you have any questions, please contact Kate Harper at 5harpers2009@gmail.com or (703) 819-7880 or Grace Harper at graceharper2026@gmail.com.

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

The Catholic Church has always taught us, through the words of Sacred Scripture and the witness of saints like Francis of Assisi, that the natural world is created by God, that it is good, and that humans have a special duty to care for creation so that it benefits not only themselves but also future generations. Today we live in a time where pollution, climate change, and poor agricultural practices harm creation and place us all in danger.

In 2015, Pope Francis responded to this environmental crisis by issuing the encyclical Laudato Si' (On Care for Our Common Home), in which he emphasizes the connection between humanity and nature and calls for “the whole human family together to seek a sustainable and integral development” (no. 13).

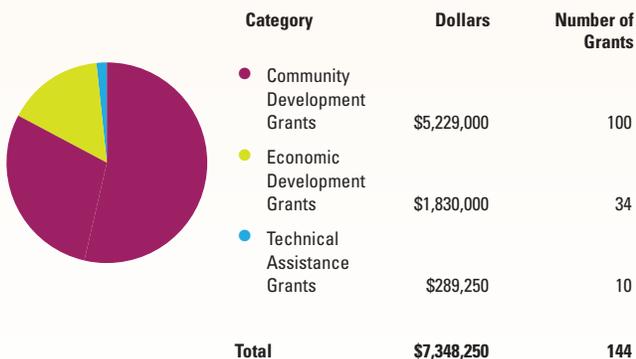

This spirit of cooperation, sustainability, and human dignity animates the work of organizations like La Cosecha Community Supported Agriculture, a cooperative farm network in Albuquerque, New Mexico, which makes locally grown, sustainable, and nutritious foods available to low-income people. With support from the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), La Cosecha has expanded its outreach beyond Albuquerque to 11 rural New Mexico counties, increased year-round accessibility to healthy produce and other food products, and obtained a US Department of Agriculture Good Agricultural Practices food-safety certification for its cooperative farm partners.

CCHD-funded organizations show how we can care for the environment, address the needs of the poor, and support responsible and sustainable local businesses at the same time. When you participate in the CCHD collection, you help not only other communities but also your own, because 25% of your contribution remains in your diocese to create local solutions to poverty.

To learn more about the collection for the CCHD and the way CCHD upholds the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church, visit www.usccb.org/cchd.

2023 GRANTS
