Prayer in Time of Pandemic

Almighty and eternal God, our refuge in every danger, to whom we turn in our distress, in faith we pray: look with compassion on the afflicted, grant eternal rest to the dead, comfort to mourners, healing to the sick, peace to the dying, strength to healthcare workers, wisdom to our leaders and the courage to reach out to all in love, so that together we may give glory to your holy name.

Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

INDIANAPOLIS, IN JULY 17-21, 2024

Preparation is almost always necessary in all that we do. Our routine in the morning prepares us for the rest of the day. At night we get settled following specific steps for a good night's sleep to recharge for the next day. We prepare ourselves for events, exercising, even meeting with friends, and the list goes on. As we hear in the Acts of the Apostles, after the Resurrection of Our Lord, Jesus prepared His disciples to bring His Word to the World, and this was just the beginning. We as Catholics continue to prepare for our mission, to draw people to Our Lord.

This Summer, we all have the chance to embark on events that are happening throughout our country. Some of you may already know about the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage and the National Eucharistic Congress which are both happening in the next few months.

The National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will be coming through Wisconsin and Chicago-The Marian Route. There will be a Vigil Mass and Eucharistic Devotion on June 29, 2024, from 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM at the National Shrine of St. Maximilian Kolbe at Marytown. You can learn more and register at: <https://www.eucharisticpilgrimage.org/marian-route>

The 10th National Eucharistic Congress will be held in Indianapolis from July 17-21, 2024. Throughout the coming weeks, details will be shared. More information can be found on the National Eucharistic Congress website: <https://www.eucharisticcongress.org/>

You can also find more information on travel packages to Indianapolis by visiting the Relevant Radio website: <https://relevantradio.com/NEC>

Let us all remember that we are called to mission at the end of every Mass!

“During the Concluding Rites, announcements may be made (if necessary) after the Prayer after Communion. The celebrant then blesses the people assembled. Sometimes, the blessing is very simple. On special days, the blessing may be more extensive. In every case, the blessing is always trinitarian: ‘May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.’ It is in the triune God and in the sign of the cross that we find our blessing.

After the blessing, the deacon dismisses the people. In fact, the dismissal gives the liturgy its name. The word “Mass” comes from the Latin word, “Missa.” At one time, the people were dismissed with the words “Ite, missa est” (literally meaning “Go, she—meaning you, the Church—has been sent”). The word “Missa” is related to the word “missio,” the root of the English word “mission.” The liturgy does not simply come to an end. Those assembled are sent forth to bring the fruits of the Eucharist to the world.”

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE in Chicago

Save the Dates
June 26 – June 30, 2024

The National Eucharistic Revival is a three-year, grassroots initiative of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to assist Catholics in coming to a fuller understanding and appreciation of the meaning of the Eucharist in the life of the Church. The aim is to proclaim that the celebration of the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life, to assist Catholics to encounter the Risen Lord in the Eucharist, and to deepen their discipleship in sharing His work of redeeming the world, won on the cross.

The Revival will culminate in a pilgrimage across the country to Indianapolis for the Eucharistic Congress in July 2024. The Archdiocese of Chicago, on the Marian Route of the pilgrimage, will host pilgrims and has organized special events and Eucharistic celebrations in archdiocesan parishes and locations from June 26 to 30, 2024.

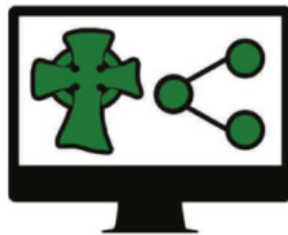

To learn more, see the full schedule and register for these events, visit EucharisticRevivalChicago.org.
