From The Desk of Fr. Patrick

Dear brothers and sisters, Happy Easter. Jesus is risen Hallelujah Alleluiah.

On this joyful day, I would like to wish you and your entire family a wonderful and blessed Easter. Christ is risen, Alleluia Alleluia! This is not just a greeting; it is the heart of our faith and the reason for our hope. Easter reminds us that no matter how dark life may seem, God has the final word, and that word is life, not death; hope, not despair; joy, not sorrow.

In today's Gospel from the Gospel of John (John 20:1-9), we see Mary of Magdala going to the tomb early in the morning, while it is still dark. She finds the stone rolled away. At first, there is confusion and fear. Peter and the beloved disciple run to the tomb, and slowly, faith begins to dawn in their hearts. This moment reflects our own journey. Many times, we approach life with uncertainty, pain, and questions. Yet Easter teaches us that even when things seem lost, God is already at work. The empty tomb is not a sign of absence, but of victory, Jesus has conquered death.

This victory has meaning for each one of us. Jesus is alive, and because He lives, we too shall live. Death no longer has power over Him, and it no longer has the final say over us. In our daily lives, this truth gives us strength. When we face struggles in our families, challenges at work, or moments of grief, we remember that resurrection is possible. Just as the disciples moved from fear to faith, we are called to move from doubt to trust. Every act of forgiveness, every moment of kindness, every choice to love is a sign that the risen Christ is alive in us.

Saint Augustine of Hippo remind us, "We are an Easter people, and Alleluia is our song." And St. John Paul II often encouraged the faithful: "Do not be afraid. Open your hearts to Christ." Easter calls us to live with courage and joy, knowing that Christ walks with us.

So today, let us celebrate with full hearts. Let us carry the light of the resurrection into our homes, our communities, and our world. Christ is risen—Alleluia! And because He lives, we have a reason to celebrate, a reason to hope, and a reason to believe that love is stronger than death. God bless you and your family this Easter season.

Scripture Questions of the Week

First Reading:

Peter testifies to others about what the Apostles witnessed with the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Do you ever share your faith with friends or family?

Second Reading:

Paul encourages the Colossians to see themselves as already risen with Christ, anticipating his return in glory. Does anticipating Christ's return impact any of your daily decision-making?

Gospel:

Both the angel of the Lord and the risen Jesus greet Mary Magdalene and the other Mary with these words of comfort: "Do not be afraid." Who in your circle of friends or family needs to be comforted this week?

Easter 2026

Dear Friends in Christ,

Before the proclamation of the gospel at the Easter Vigil liturgy, there is a deeply powerful and moving moment. It is the joyous triple Alleluia. It not only signals the end of our penitential observances but it expresses our passage with the Lord through his passion, death, and burial. Alleluia is our joyful shout of triumph for as Christ rises from the dead, so do we.

Yet, we may find that our Easter joy has been dampened this year in the face of the daunting challenges of war, the upheavals experienced by migrant families, the great turbulence and polarization in our political life, and the myriad uncertainties about our future and the future of our children. Can we sing Alleluia and mean it?

Experiencing those sentiments myself I am drawn to Saint Paul's words to the Thessalonians. In a moment of suffering loss, confusion and grief he wrote: "But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died." (1Thessalonians 4:13-14)

Listen carefully to Paul's words. He tells the Thessalonians that they can grieve and that they can experience struggle and loss. But they must not grieve or suffer as those who have no hope, as those who do not believe that Jesus died and rose and will take us to himself. Like the Thessalonians, we do not ignore or deny the suffering and grief we are experiencing, but we are not held captive to this moment nor to this world. We hold fast to Christ our hope who draws us into a future defined and shaped by his Resurrection.

So, sisters and brothers, let's not hold back our shouts of joy. Let us sing with gusto our Alleluia for it bears witness to our enduring hope in Christ's Resurrection. It inspires us to do what we can to allow his risen life to take hold of and shape our lives and to empower us to reach out to our wounded world. A blessed Easter to all of you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Speaker Series

Thursday, April 16

7:00pm in the O'Gara Center

The Men's Group invites everyone to join the conversation at our next speaker event on April 16 at 7:00 PM in the O'Gara Center.

Pope Leo XIV convened his first extraordinary consistory on January 7–8, 2026. An extraordinary consistory of cardinals is a private assembly of the entire College of Cardinals from around the world called by the Pope to discuss matters affecting the universal Church.

Our guest speaker will be Fr. John Guthrie, Director of Worship at the University of Saint Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary. Fr. Guthrie will discuss the extraordinary consistory's call to the Church to become more synodal and missionary and how this call is rooted in the celebration of the Eucharist. It will tease out some implications for how each of us can deepen our own synodal and missionary calls both at the parish level and within our own lives.

Heather's House & Monica's House: Many women consider abortion because they lack adequate housing or will otherwise be homeless if they choose life. The mission of Heather's House & Monica's House is to support women in difficult and unplanned pregnancies by offering them a safe and secure home where they can live with their babies. Heather's House & Monica's House are more than shelters, they offer mothers an opportunity to develop the life and job skills necessary to become financially independent and loving mothers. The Appeals of Our Lady

If you are a devotee of Our Blessed Mother, or you pray the Rosary faithfully, or maybe you don't pray the rosary as often as you want because life's demands seem to get in the way. You will want to see what is coming to St. Patrick Church, O'Gara Activity Center on April 24th thru April 26th and be here to see it.

Through the centuries an angel, saints and many popes have talked about devotion to the Mother of God, and not too long ago a young 15 yr old teen, Carlo Acutis who was recently canonized a Saint, because he catalogued the Appeals of Our Lady - Apparitions and Marian Shrines of the World. (He also designed another exhibition, The Eucharistic Miracles of the World).

At the Appeals of Our Lady Exhibition, you'll see beautiful art, read wonderful stories, and see Carlo Acutis' personal illustrations, photos, and pictures. People are saying this is the Best Marian Exhibition they have ever seen. You are the judge. On Mother's Day 2025, The Mater Christi Rosary Guild, Knights of Columbus rolled out this exhibition. We invite you to see for yourself.

So now you have a written invitation and over the next couple of weeks you'll see more information about details of this exhibition and hear from Father Kizza who will extend a fourth invitation on the weekend of the Exhibition. Please come.

Bring your children, your parents, your extended family especially those that are handicapped. OH! It's FREE Admission. But if you want to help cover expenses, free will donation containers are available.

The Exhibition will be shown in the O'Gara Activity Center. One hour before and 90 minutes after all the weekend Masses the weekend of April 24-26th.

We look forward to seeing you and your family.
