For where two or three
are gathered together in my name,

there am I

in the midst of them.

MATTHEW 18:20

To be a welcoming Eucharistic community by providing resources for spiritual growth and faith development, and encouraging service and discipleship to spread the good news of God's Kingdom.

Labor Day

Giving thanks for the dignity of work

Through the intercession
of St. Joseph the Worker, may all who labor
be blessed.

St. Teresa of Calcutta

A Life of Radical Mercy

Born Anjezë Gonxhe Bojaxhiu in 1910 in Skopje, Albania, the woman the world came to know as Mother Teresa remains an enduring icon of radical mercy. Raised in a devout Albanian home where charity was a daily practice, she felt an early calling to missionary work. At eighteen, she joined the Sisters of Loreto, taking her vows in India and adopting the name Teresa.

For nearly twenty years, she taught school in Calcutta. Yet the desperate poverty outside her convent walls was impossible to ignore. On a train trip to Darjeeling in 1946, she experienced what she referred to as a “call within a call”—a directive to abandon safety and serve the destitute directly. She traded her standard habit for a simple white sari with blue borders—walking straight into the city’s harshest slums and initiating extraordinary acts of charity.

In 1950, she established the Missionaries of Charity to shelter the forgotten, opening her first hospice for the dying to ensure that even the most abandoned could pass with dignity and human warmth. What began as a modest local effort quickly grew into a worldwide movement of hospices, orphanages, and relief centers across every continent.

Her devotion earned her the 1979 Nobel Peace Prize, an honor she accepted strictly on behalf of the poor. Though later years brought debates over medical care standards and her traditional theology, her singular focus on easing human suffering remained absolute. Canonized as St. Teresa of Calcutta in 2016, her life remains a powerful reminder of how quiet, purposeful conviction can move the world.

*Not all of us can do great things.
But we can do small things with great love.*

— Mother Teresa

Welcome to the Parish!

Mary-Augustus Chibueze Ndubuisi

My name is Mary-Augustus Chibueze Ndubuisi, a seminarian from the Diocese of Nashville, Tennessee. I am originally from Nigeria. I love music, singing, playing the violin and so on. I am currently studying Theology at Mundelein Seminary and am grateful for the opportunity to serve here at St. Patrick Parish.

I am deeply excited to be part of this parish community, to meet and learn from you, and most especially, to serve alongside you as we grow together in faith and love for Christ. I look forward to getting to know many of you and sharing in the life of this wonderful parish!

Jonathan Jensen

Hello St. Patrick Parish! My name is Jonathan Jensen, and I am a Seminarian for the Diocese of Grand Rapids in Michigan. I am studying to be a Priest at the University of St. Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary. As part of my formation, I have been assigned to St. Patrick as my teaching parish to learn more about being a parish priest through hands-on experience (think of it like an internship). I will be around the parish mostly on weekends while school is in session for the next four years or so, God willing.

I am so excited to be here with you all! I just arrived in Chicago a few weeks ago, but prior to arriving, I was in formation for four years at St. John Vianney College Seminary in St. Paul, MN. Prior to that, I lived my whole beginning of my life in the Grand Rapids area. If you've ever visited Grand Rapids, you've probably seen my Home Parish, St. Adalberts, from the highway; it's the church with the large bronze domes. Once I am ordained, God willing, I will return to Grand Rapids to be a priest there. I am really looking forward to getting to know all of you, and please don't hesitate to introduce yourself if you see me around!
